Pettry Cemetery
Marsh Fork District of Raleigh County
Intersection of Sturgeon Fork and Dry Creek, WV.
- 1870 -

This cemetery is located 1 mile on County Rt. 3/6 from the mouth of Dry Creek, WV 25062, on a knoll, on the left side of the intersection of Sturgeon Fork and Dry Creek. The GPS location is: N37° 52.115', W081° 26.981', Elevation: 1,494 ft., 1277 Sturgeon Branch Rd. The Universal Transverse Mercator (UTM) Grid location is: Zone 17 4,191,130N 460,450E. The cemetery originally was fenced in and was about 170 feet by 80 feet in size. In ~1975, Charles Stanley Pettry replaced the original fence with a chain link fence and extended the size to 195 feet by 96 feet with an extra protrusion of 20 feet by 90 feet along the right side middle. The cemetery now contains .47 acres. There are two entrances; one at its front behind Charles Pettry's house and another from the right backside being the easiest to enter [See plot sketch]. There are few trees and small bushes growing in and outside the cemetery that makes it difficult to see in the summer from the public road. The cemetery is available to the public for visiting and viewing in accordance with WV Code 37-13A-1 (Access of certain persons to cemeteries and graves located on private land). No permission is required to visit the cemetery.

Two persons in the cemetery are Union Civil War veterans. Their units are on their headstones, but not their dates of birth and death. The veterans are Andrew Smith Byrnside (Sept. 15, 1823–Dec. 9, 1900) and Ballard Preston Petrey (April 2, 1845-Feb. 2, 1930).

There are about ~7 metal markers and about 18 fieldstone markers in this cemetery, one of which is Martha [b/d Sept. 17, 1870], the infant daughter of Andrew & Dorcas Byrnside and the first person to be buried in this cemetery. Her grave is located between her parent’s graves. The others names for the buried with fieldstones are unknown by me and most are thought to be buried before 1920. There are a few [~9] with no grave markers of any kind.

Of those remains in this cemetery, some were cremated and contains their ashes. Those ashes remains known by me are; John R. Sparks, Verna M. Sparks and Agnes Lucille (Cobb) Hopkins.

The cemetery property [.47 acre] originally was part of land claimed by Wilson Smith Abbott in 1838. Wilson & Mary (Keatley) Abbott were the first settlers on Dry Creek, claimed the whole of Dry Creek. The cemetery land was included in ~400 acres of land sold to Andrew Smith & Dorcas Wilson (Abbott) Byrnside in 1858. This cemetery was then included in the property that Andrew Byrnside sold to Ballard Preston & Ardellia (Pettry) Petrey in the early 1870s. Ballard and Ardellia gave Ardellia's half-sister, Ella Pettry, 4.29 acres of their land that included the cemetery on Oct. 18, 1913. Ballard and Ardellia signed the deed with their mark (X). Ballard and Ardellia could not read or write. After Ella Pettry died [Nov. 6, 1939] the property went to her daughter Lula Faye (Pettry) Acord. Lula Acord sold the property to her nephew, Dewey Pettry, who deeded it to his grandson, Charles Stanley Pettry, II in ~1969.
